Would Be a Bad Tax.

The government at Washington, through three of its branches, is conducting an inquiry into the extent and value of the munition business in this country. As the internal revenue commissioner has been assigned part of the work, rumor becomes insistent that Washington is at least contemplating imposing a tax on munitions of war. Such a measure would be open to several dangers.

It would make the government a sharer in the profits of this industry. It requires little imagination to see that now of all times, when the Teutonic powers are incensed over the private manufacture and export of munitions, and on the statement of this witness and held on a charge of homicide "in that he recklessly drove his car." Our very complete lines of furs for the season of 1916 are now ready for your examination, and we would be pleased to have you call and look them over.

ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE LADIES

State street is open to our store, so do not let the scenery in the Rialto bridge district lead you to believe we are not still doing business at the old stand. We are showing some exceptional Hudson Seal Coats in latest styles. You should see them. Some extremely stylish Furs and Muffs-just what you have been wishing for. Fur trimmings for dresses sold by the yard at various prices.

Don't forget that now is the time to have your furs repaired.
